A NOTE FROM THE GREENVILLE THEATRE BOARD CHAIR

Welcome to Greenville Theatre!

We are so very excited to have you join us for Greenville Theatre's 96th season. 2020 and 2021 were very challenging years for the theatre. The Pandemic forced us to pause live performances for quite a considerable time, and for all of us who love the theatre, it seemed like an eternity. However, through the hard work of our new Producing Artistic Director, Max Quinlan, and our amazing Greenville Theatre staff and actors, we were able to resume live performances last summer.

During the challenges of 2020 and 2021 we were blown away by the generosity of our Patrons, Donors, and Season ticket subscribers. Without your extraordinary help during this time, we would not be able to present this show to you today.

Judging by the packed houses we've experienced during our return to live performances last year, we get the sense all of you missed live theatre almost as much as we did. We hope you enjoy the remainder of our 96th season, and look forward to entertaining you for years to come!

Now, sit back, relax, and enjoy the show!
