(please list for each show)

Into The Woods (February 22 – March 10, 2024) _____

This modern-day classic brings together everyone's favorite storybook characters with a twist as they embark on unexpected journeys Into The Woods. With a Tony Award-winning score by the late Stephen Sondheim and book by James Lapine, this show explores what happens after your fairytale wishes come true. Join Cinderella, Little Red Riding Hood, Rapunzel, and Jack and Beanstalk as they go beyond "ever after" to find out what happens next on their journey.

Driving Miss Daisy (April 4 – 21, 2024) _____

This beautiful play tells the unlikely story of friendship found between Daisy Werthan, an elderly Southern Jewish woman, and Hoke Colburn, her African American driver. Written by award-winning playwright Alfred Urby, this story was adapted into the Oscar winning film starring Morgan Freedman and Jessica Tandy. The show explores the commonality found between two unlikely people set in the backdrop of Atlanta, Georgia between the years of 1948 and 1973. Audiences won't want to miss this Pulitzer Prize winning play!

Escape to Margaritaville (May 30 – June 23, 2024) _____

Come hear the hit songs of Jimmy Buffet brought to life in this hilarious new musical! Audiences will get a kick out of meeting two very different people; one that is extremely career-focused and one that believes "It's Five O'Clock Somewhere," who ultimately change each other's lives in Paradise. Featuring hit songs like "Margaritaville" and "Cheeseburger in Paradise," audience members and "parrotheads" alike will be falling in love and humming along to this perfect summer musical by comedian Mike O'Malley and Jimmy Buffet himself.
